The St Petersburg Police Department is pleased to announce an upcoming Citizens' Police Academy.

The purpose of the Citizens' Police Academy is to provide it's citizens and business owners (or managers) with a better understanding of the St. Petersburg Police Department. The academy consists of eight (8) weeks of instruction, beginning on March 26, 2012 and ending on May 14, 2012. Classes will meet Monday evenings from 6:00 - 9:00 pm on the 2nd floor of the St. Petersburg Police Department Training Building, located at 1301 1st Avenue North. Attending this fun filled academy will give you insight into police work. Completion of this course does not provide any official certification or authority.

Students will have the opportunity to:

- Understand what happens when you call the police
- Learn how officers make use of force decisions
- See how K-9 units are trained and utilized
- Learn about sexual predators and internet safety
- Learn about crime scene processing
- See the Tactical Apprehension and Control Team in action
- Learn about volunteer opportunities with the police department
- And more...

Class size is limited to 30 applicants. Please fill out the below application. Return it by mail or fax it to:
