

St. Petersburg Police Department News Release

Media Relations Office
Bill Proffitt
Mike Puetz

Voice 727-893-7550
Fax 727-893-7773
Media Line 727-893-7878

For Immediate Release

Jan 30, 2012

“Fallen Heroes” by P Buckley Moss to Benefit the Sun Coast PBA

Artist P. Buckley Moss will unveil a special painting entitled “Fallen Heroes” during her annual appearance at Finn Gallery in St. Petersburg, March 9th, 10th & 11th.

The painting celebrates the lives of the three St. Petersburg Police Officers who fell in the line of duty in early 2011. Limited edition prints of the painting will be sold at the show to help raise funds for Suncoast Law Enforcement Charities, Inc.

The print edition will be available at three different prices levels and sizes; $50 (small); $100 (medium) and $200 (large). P Buckley Moss and Finn Gallery will donate 50% of the proceeds to Suncoast Law Enforcement Charities, Inc. from the sale of each print. The prints will be available through both the Finn Gallery or at www.suncoastpba.com

Suncoast Law Enforcement Charities, Inc. plans to use all donations to help defray the costs of nearly 130 police officers and family members who are planning to attend the National Police Week in Washington, D.C. May 13-19, 2012 to observe the names of Sergeant Thomas Baitinger, Officer Jeffrey Yaslowitz and Officer David Crawford permanently inscribed on the National Law Enforcement Officers Memorial Wall.

The contact person is Mr. Tim Finn, Finn Gallery, 176 4th Avenue N.E., 727-894-2899.

The contact person for the Suncoast Law Enforcement Charities, Inc. is Detective Mark Marland, St. Petersburg Police Department, 727-893-4846.

Information by Mike Puetz on Monday January 30, 2012 at 8:15 a.m.

####