Two Burglars Caught on Video

Incident: Commercial Burglary

Location: 2325 34 Street South (His and Hers Clothing)

Date: March 30, 2009

Time: 3:45 a.m.

Offense #: 2009-021742

St. Petersburg Police Burglary Detectives are looking for three suspects who smashed a 1990s model Chrysler minivan through the front of the His & Hers Hip Hop Clothing Store early yesterday morning. The vehicle caused extensive damage to the store front. The vehicle used in the burglary was reported stolen. The suspects got away with over 1-thousand dollars worth of merchandise.

There were three suspects involved :

- 1) Driver, B/M last seen wearing a tan hat and purple jacket,
- 2) Rear passenger, B/M, last seen wearing navy blue hoodie,
- 3) Front passenger, B/M, 5'5, Close cut brown hair, last seen wearing baggy black shorts and black jacket with multi color design.

During the burglary the suspects loaded the loot into the minivan and the vehicle started to back out with the front passenger hanging onto the passenger side door. In the rush to leave the area the vehicle left the passenger side sliding door at the scene.

Anyone with information please contact Detective Kenneth Miller, Burglary, 727-892-5916 or the Communication Center, 727-893-7780.
