Detectives Seek the Public's Assistance in Identifying a Robbery Suspect

On Monday, May 9th at about 1:45 p.m., a lone suspect entered the business armed with a silver handgun, grabbed the lone clerk on duty and demanded cash.

The clerk provided the suspect cash from the register after which she was forced to get under a desk in a back office and was told by the suspect to remain there until he left.

The suspect was last seen leaving the store crossing 34th Street South westbound out of sight. No vehicle was seen.

The suspect is described as a dark skinned B/M, 30-40 years of age, 5'10"-6'0" tall and about 170 lbs. He was last seen wearing a camouflage colored ball cap, brownish green shirt with an unidentified design on the front and back, dark pants and white shoes.

St. Petersburg Police Robbery Detectives are requesting the assistance of the public in identifying the suspect in this case. Anyone with information is asked to call Detective Reginald Mitchell at 727-893-4204 or 727-893-7780. Callers may also utilize the Tip Line at 727-892-5000.
