Port of St. Petersburg
Tariff No. 2

SECTION ONE

GENERAL INFORMATION

ITEM	SUBJECT	APPLICATION
100	Jurisdiction	The City of St. Petersburg is a municipal entity organized and existing under the laws of the State of Florida and has control of and jurisdiction over Port facilities, owned and operated by the Port of St. Petersburg. The City has the power to fix and regulate charges for the use of the facilities and to enact and enforce rules and regulations governing the use of the facilities. The administration, operation and maintenance of the Port of St. Petersburg is under the direct supervision of the Port Director appointed by the City of St. Petersburg.
105	Enforcement	The Port Director shall be responsible for the enforcement of the rules, regulations or charges set forth in this Port of St. Petersburg Tariff No. 2 for and on behalf of the City of St. Petersburg. If the Port Director determines that there is a violation of the rules or regulations set forth in said Tariff, he shall notify the alleged offending common carrier, vessel, vessel owner, shipper, receiver, tenant or agent, in writing, describing the violation in detail and setting forth the particular portion of the Tariff alleged to be violated. Upon receipt of a notice of violation, the alleged offender shall cease all violative activities. If aggrieved by the notice of violation, the alleged offender may appeal same by filing a written petition with the Port Director within ten (10) days of receipt of the notice of violation. The filing of the petition does not authorize the notice of violation. The Port Director shall act upon the petition within thirty (30) days of its filing at a regular or special meeting of the Port Director with notice to all affected parties. If still aggrieved by the decision of the Port Director, the alleged offender may take further action in the courts as it deem appropriate.

ITEM	SUBJECT	APPLICATION
110	Location	The Port of St. Petersburg is located on the North side of Bayboro Harbor, which is on the West side of Tampa Bay on the Florida's Gulf Coast. (See NOAA Chart 11416).
115	Harbor Entrance	Bayboro Harbor inner entrance channel extends westward into the harbor proper from an intersection of two outer entrance channels in lower Tampa Bay at approximate position 27 degrees 45.5' N, 82 degrees 37.0' W.
120	Berthing	Approximately 1300 lineal feet of bulkhead wharfage exist on the North side of Bayboro Harbor bounded on the West by the University of South Florida and on the East by the U.S. Coast Guard facilities. The Port of St. Petersburg's passenger terminal occupies the western portion of the bulkhead with the rest of the wharf available for general cargo operations on an available basis.
125	Channel and Turning Basin	The approach to the Port of St. Petersburg is from the North East via natural deep water of the main shipping channel or from the South via Point Pinellas Channel, approximately 5.7 miles to Bayboro Harbor.
130	Storage	The Port's main basin measures 1300 feet with a safety turning radius of 1000 feet. Serving the berthing areas and wharves are approximately 4 acres of land available for waterborne oriented development. The Port Authority owns 41,000 square feet of transit shed available for short or long term lease. Ample open storage is available for both short and long term lease. Water facilities are provided by the City of St. Petersburg, which is the primary facility for all of the City of St. Petersburg. Electric utilities are provided by Florida Power and include major heavy industrial capacities for existing and future tenants.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

ITEM	SUBJECT	APPLICATION
135	Lights at Night	All vessels, barges, or other water craft, while anchored in the waterways or moored at the docks of the Port of St. Petersburg, must at all times of the night show proper lights.
140	Collisions or Grounding of Vessels	In the event of a grounding or a collision between two vessels or between a vessel and any wharf, dock, pier, or any other structure owned by the Port of St. Petersburg, written report of such an incident, shall within twenty-four hours, be furnished to the Port Director by the master, owner or agent of said vessel, provided that in the case of a minor collision where a vessel is underway and proceeding to the open seas, there being no need of repair, said report may be mailed by the master of such vessel from the next port which it enters, and provided further that in all cases of collision or grounding, report of an owner or agent shall not relieve the Pilot of the duty of rendering his report within the specified time.
145	Application of Tariff	The rates, rules and regulations contained in this tariff shall apply equally to all the traffic on the waterways and facilities of Port of St. Petersburg owned and operated and under the jurisdiction of the City of St. Petersburg; except where inconsistent with express provisions of leases of space and facilities to private persons. The City of St. Petersburg shall be the sole judge as to the application and interpretation of this tariff and supplements hereto.
150	Consent to terms of Tariff	The use of the waterways and facilities under the jurisdiction of the Port of St. Petersburg shall constitute a consent to the terms and conditions of this tariff, and the rules and regulations of the City of St. Petersburg, as the same exist at the time of each such use; and such use shall evidence an agreement on the part of the vessels, their owners and agents, and other users of such waterways and facilities, to pay all charges specified in this tariff, and be governed by all of said terms and conditions and rules and regulations.

260	Terminal Rights	The Port of St. Petersburg reserves the right to control the loading, unloading and handling of all cargo on the premises and facilities under its control. It is at the Port Director's decision to refuse use of dock and/or other Port facility. The Port also reserves the right to estimate and collect in advance all charges which may accrue against common carriers, vessels, their owners, and agents, or against cargo loaded or discharged by such vessels or other users of the facilities of the Port whose credit has not been properly established with the Port, or who had habitually been on the delinquent list. Use of the facilities may be denied until such advance payment or deposits are made. The Port of St. Petersburg reserves the right to apply any payment received against the oldest bill rendered against common carriers, their owners and/or agents, or other users of the facilities.
265	Rental of Space	Stevedores, agents, or others having an interest in waterborne cargoes and desiring office space, gear rooms, or floor space, will make application to the Port Director, who will establish rentals and determine conditions upon which the desired space may be leased. All leased storage area must be approved by the Port Director and he has the right to deny any person a lease or use of Port facilities.
270	Stevedoring and Marine Cargo Handling Services and Charges	The loading, unloading, or handling of cargo must be performed by a stevedore, marine terminal operator duly licensed. The practice in this Port is for the licensed stevedore/terminal operator to perform vessel and terminal cargo handling. Charges for handling cargo shall be billed by stevedores/terminal operators directly for whom these services are performed. The Port or City does not participate in negotiations relative to cargo handling charges.

275	Watchmen	It is the responsibility of all Port users to furnish their own watchmen when they have cargo and other property on Port premises which has high susceptibility to theft; watchmen so employed must have prior written clearance by the Port Director.
280	Abandoned Cargo	Any cargo on which charges have not been collected within 45 days shall be considered abandoned cargo. The Port of St. Petersburg reserves the right to remove any or all such property to another part of the premises, or remove it and place it in storage off the Port at the risk and expense of the owner. The City of St. Petersburg may retain possession of the property until all charges have been paid. When the Director determines final abandonment of cargo in any instance, he shall dispose of same and credit the City of St. Petersburg with any funds realized.
285	Explosives, Flammables and Other Hazardous Commodities	Explosives and hazardous or highly flammable commodities or material may be handled over, or received on the wharves or other facilities of the Port of St. Petersburg by special arrangements with and at the option of the port Director; subject to Federal, State and City laws, ordinances, rules and regulations and approval from U.S. Coastguard. A Material Safety Data Sheet under OSHA regulation must be filed with Port Director.
290	Application for Berth	All vessels, their owners or agents, desiring a berth at the wharves, shall make application to the Port Authority specifying the date of docking and sailing, the nature and quantity of cargo to be handled, and the name of the vessel not less than 72 hours prior to the vessel's arrival. The Port Authority shall be given updated information as to the vessel's estimated arrival time 48 hours and 24 hours in advance of docking. Additionally, all vessels will provide the Port with an estimated time of completion (ETC), and sailing time. The Port of St. Petersburg reserves the right to assign berths for the best utilization of Port facilities. All decisions of the Port Director are final.

315	Vessels to Vacate	The Port Authority may order any vessel to vacate any berth when the Authority deems that the continued presence of such vessel at such berth would be a potential hazard to the vessel, the berth, the Port’s facilities, or the rights or property or safety of others, or would unreasonably interfere with the use of the Port’s facilities by others. Such situations include, but are not limited to, the following: when a potential natural disaster such as a hurricane, tornado, earthquake, or flooding, makes the continued presence of the vessel a threat to the vessel and/or the Port’s facilities; when the berth is committed to others under a application for berth, when the vessel’s cargo or their items are a hazard to other vessels, cargo or facilities; and when the vessel fails to work continuously or within reason to completion of its loading and/or discharge. If a vessel fails to vacate upon request of the Port Authority, without reasonable excuse, it shall be held responsible for any damage or expense which results to the Port and to others caused by such failure to vacate. Also, the Port Authority shall have the option (but not the duty) to move the vessel to other locations at the risk and expense of the vessel. If such movement occurs, the vessel shall hold harmless the Port of St. Petersburg any liability it may incur as a result of such a movement. If a vessel refuses to vacate a berth, the Port Authority reserves the right to deny said vessel future berthing privileges and vessel will be charged the following rate: Triple the applicable dockage rate.
320	Pilot Regulations	Pilotage by a pilot licensed, or deputy pilot indentured, by the State Pilot Commission for the Port of St. Petersburg is compulsory for foreign vessels and all coastwise vessels, except those enrolled United States coastwise vessels which have on board a pilot licensed by the United States Government. If a vessel is sailing to a foreign port or arriving from a foreign port, it must engage a pilot licensed, apprentice pilot indentured by the State Pilot Commission for the Port of St. Petersburg, Florida, even though a United States licensed pilot may be on board.
