STATEMENT BY THE OFFICE OF THE MAYOR OF EXECUTIVE ORDER 2020-22

St. Petersburg, FL (June 4, 2020) -- With yesterday's executive order 2020-22, Mayor Rick Kriseman ended the temporary suspension of City-issued extended hours permits for the sale of alcohol. As a result, any bar or other establishment that possesses such an extended hours permit may sell alcohol pursuant to that permit. There are no remaining restrictions on alcohol sales contained in the Mayor's emergency orders, although alcohol sales remain subject to the Governor's orders and applicable laws.
